Location & Situation

Pentwyn Uchaf enjoys a beautiful location within the heart of the Renowned Brecon Beacons National Park. The property benefits from a very accessible location, being minutes from the A4067 which provides an excellent direct road connection to the A40 & M4.

The A4067 joins the A40 at Sennybridge, which has a good range of local facilities and amenities. More extensive shopping and leisure amenities, along with educational establishments are available at Brecon and Llandovery, or slightly further afield at Carmarthen or Swansea.

The property benefits from elevated position with 360 degree views all around over stunning open countryside. A very peaceful and tranquil position. A local tourism enterprise has a comprehensive list of local attractions and showcases the general location, view: www.craivalleyecolodges.co.uk

Pentwyn Uchaf

The dwelling comprises of a two storey detached period cottage, with slate roof and traditional painted stone elevations. The cottage possesses potential for further extension and /or the possibility of converting the adjoining traditional barn (subject to obtaining the necessary consents).

The existing accommodation comprises;

Front door opening into;

Sitting Room – feature stone fireplace with fitted woodburner; flagstone floor; spiral staircase to first floor; door to Kitchen and twin windows to front aspect;

Kitchen – with beautifully presented range of white finished wall and base units including integral stainless steel sink, fridge, freezer, dishwasher and ceramic hob. Electric oven; display cabinet; floor and wall tiles;

Shower Room – with enclosed electric shower cubicle, WC, pedestal wash hand basin and wall mounted ladder radiator;

Stairs to first floor accommodation;

Bedroom 1 - double room with window to front aspect and radiator; door through to Bedroom 2;

Bedroom 2 - small double bedroom with window to front aspect; radiator;

Traditional Barn & Outbuildings

Adjoining the cottage is a traditional stone barn with cart door openings, and currently clad with a tin sheeted roof. This forms a useful building, having recently been used as a carpenters workshop, and able to be utilised for stabling or storage. The barn has potential to be converted into additional residential or holiday let accommodation, subject to obtaining the necessary consents.

Situated to the north and east of the cottage are two detached tin clad outbuildings. The northern building comprises of a compact Dutch Barn with extended lean-to. The second building comprises a compact height lambing shed. Both buildings offer potential for adaption to a purchasers own requirements, or for replacement with new buildings.

Garden & Paddocks

A level enclosed vegetable /lawn garden lies to the front aspect of the cottage. This is enclosed with a dry stone wall and provides a good level vegetable or lawned garden area. There are good areas of hardstanding around the property, including a concrete slab laid to the northern gable elevation of the cottage creating potential for a possible extension.

Lying either side of the cottage are two compact grazing paddocks, which are mainly level to gently sloping. These form good fields, ideally suited to small scale livestock, or equestrian use.

In all Pentwyn Uchaf as offered extends in total to approximately 3.85 acres. The vendors will consider the property being sold with less acreage.
